I understand that I will be responsible for the product whilst it is with my company for review, and liable to pay for it if it is not maintained in good condition and to have it available for return

1. CONTRACT TERMS

The equipment remains the property of ASUS during the loan period. The borrower undertakes insurance said equipment against loss or damage until it's return. The above-mentioned material must be avlabel for pick-up by ASUS by the loan expiry date in the same condition, good working order and in its original packaging. In addition, it must not be de-constructed, opened or otherwise modified. The borrower accepts that ASUS may invoice him in respect of any repairs and costs involved to restore the material to its original state if it has been damaged or interfered with whilst in their care. The borrower accepts that in the event of non-return of the goods before the loan expiry date, ASUS may raise an invoice for the value of the merchandise to the above organization.

2. GENERAL MEASURES

The borrower undertakes to take all necessary precautions concerning insurance of the equipment on loan, at his premises, during any transhipment internally or otherwise and upon their return to ASUS or their authorised agents unless shipment is undertaken by ASUS or their agents.

3.PRODUCT USE AND LIMITED LIABILITY.

ASUS guarantee that the equipment will be in good working order at delivery date. The borrower undertakes not to misuse said equipment and to ensure that it is maintained in good working order during the period of the loan up until return to ASUS and/ or their agents.
